

LOCAL BREVITIES.

May Day.

Registration at Lihue, Kauai, was 298.

Company B will meet for drill this evening.

The list of advertised letters for April appears elsewhere.

W. R. Castle has been appointed assignee of Wenner & Co.

Governor H. H. Wells will leave for home on the Warrimoo.

Fifteen specials were dismissed from the police force yesterday.

S. B. Champain has opened a new barber shop on Fort street.

An American, of experience, wishes a situation in a business house.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halstead will leave for San Francisco on the Alameda.

The buildings now occupied by Allen & Robinson will be sold at auction at noon today.

Dan Lyons' dancing class for adults will meet this evening at Arion Hall at the usual hour.

Over thirteen thousand letters were sent by the Australia. A heavy paper mail was also sent.

A good opportunity to buy a fine watch or stylish jewelry can be had at Wenner's for the next few days.

There will be a meeting of the Cyclorama Company on Friday at the office of the Safe Deposit Company.

The official announcement of Henry Laws as Auditor-General appears in the By Authority column.

In spite of all his asseverations to the contrary, Paul Neumann paid his taxes before leaving for the Coast.

Hustace & Co. have a temporary office in James F. Morgan's store. If you require any wood or coal they will fix you up.

The Warrimoo is due today and the Alameda tomorrow—the former bound for Vancouver, and the latter for San Francisco.

The Woman's Board of Missions hold their regular monthly meeting this afternoon at 2:30, at the Central Union Church.

Dr. Edward Armitage, lately of Waimea, Kauai, has located at the office formerly occupied by Dr. Foote, on Beretania street.

Hustace & Co. lost a valuable horse yesterday. Their loss will not deter them from selling fuel to families at their usual low rates.

At last accounts a successor to Port Surveyor Aiken, of Kahului had not been appointed. W. E. Bal is an applicant for the position.

The members of the police force were paid off yesterday and in consequence collectors were as thick as mosquitos around the station-house.

Edward Towse, who has been a reporter on the Star for several months past, has been replaced by W. F. Prosser, a new comer to the islands.

The members of the Second District Club will be addressed at Annexation Hall this evening at 7:30 by Charles L. Carter, the nominee of the Club.

The well-known story of life in the South, "The Octoroon," will be presented on Saturday night at the Opera House, instead of "The Streets of New York."

The saloons will be closed tomorrow during voting hours. At the last general election, they were ordered closed and several did close—their front doors.

George Ryan and the other two prisoners who attempted to escape the other day, will appear in the District Court this morning to receive an additional sentence.

If Harry Klemme, the manager of the Commercial Saloon, is not elected to the constitutional convention, it will not be because his friends are not working for him.

James F. Morgan will hold another auction sale of articles belonging to the Kamehameha families at 10 o'clock this morning at the Arlington Block, Hotel street.

The meeting of the Historical Society, at which Professor Alexander will deliver an address on the Russian Occupancy of the Islands, has been postponed until Monday.

The property at Waikiki owned by H. F. Poor was sold yesterday at auction for $2500. The land has a frontage of 100 feet and is 300 feet deep. A. Gartenberg was the purchaser.

A Delightful Musicales.

A most delightful musicale was given by Dr. and Mrs. J. S. McGrew at their Hotel street residence last evening, as a farewell to ex-Governor Wells, of Virginia, who intends departing soon. The large parlors, the hallways, and even the verandas were crowded with guests who enjoyed the treats given them by the best of Honolulu's musical people. After the programme was finished, Governor Wells gave some of his reminiscences in Washington, after which a dainty supper was served.

The old wooden building which has been occupied by Allen & Robinson for so long, will be sold at auction today and then removed or demolished. In its place a handsome brick building, three stories high, will be erected. It will have a frontage of seventy-two feet on Queen street.

Mrs. Gans' next lecture will be given on Friday evening. It will probably be given under the direction of the Scottish Thistle Club. The subject will be "Scotland," and it is spoken of as one of the most interesting as well as beautiful of the series.
